

GUIDING FOR SKEDADDLE

Saddle Skedaddle have been running inspiring cycling holidays around the world for over 20 years, and are looking for experienced guides to join its incredible team of professional guides.

THE LOWDOWN ON GUIDING AT SKEDADDLE...

A Saddle Skedaddle Guide is more than a cyclist: “passionate about peddalin’” and highly skilled on the road (with spanner in hand), yes ... but at the heart of what they do is an unwavering commitment to ensure they look after number one: The customer!

Travelling with Skedaddle is all about enjoying cycling (in all its forms!) but also about a unique way of getting to know your destination all in the knowledge that you are in a safe pair of hands that smooth out any bumps along the way. You will help customers explore their destination from a new perspective, nurture their love of cycling, look after them when the going gets tough, and generally just be on hand to ensure they have a truly memorable experience they’ll always treasure.

WHY SKEDADDLE?

With over 260 holidays in 33 countries (and counting) Saddle Skedaddle are all about doing something wonderful on two wheels! Offering holidays catering for all abilities and interests, Skedaddles range includes: Road cycling, leisure cycling, adventure cycling, family cycling and mountain biking. No matter what your preference they’ve got something to suit everyone and are passionate about inspiring as many folk as possible to travel at the speed of the bike for the chance to explore a place, and its people they’ll never want to forget.

Just as Skedaddle Guides want to look after their customers, so Saddle Skedaddle wants to look after our guides. Working for Skedaddle gives you access to comprehensive training, competitive salary and opportunities for personal and professional development, all while exploring some of the most incredible locations and cultures on the planet!
